

First off, we would like to say a big thank you to all customers betting on the Exchange over Cheltenham week. It's our biggest week of the year to showcase the Exchange and educate new users by having liquid markets from an early stage.

We may not have had the roar of the opening race of the Cheltenham Festival, but we were treated to some exhilarating close finishes, exceptional performances and festival favourites being turned over. Jockey Rachael Blackmore stole the show with six winners as Irish-trained horses dominated their British counterparts, firing in a total of 23 winners!

In April, we get to witness Dustin Johnson defending his green jacket on the carpets of Augusta National golf course in the Masters. Six months after his triumph in the delayed 2020 renewal, DJ will be looking to extend his stay as the Masters champion but there will be plenty chasing that title and looking to get their name added to the elite list of winners.

April's Key Events

Masters: Thursday 8th – 11th April

Grand National Festival: 8th – 10th April

Betfair Account Update

Betfair has a commitment in place to ensure that gambling is conducted in a fair, safe and responsible manner. As part of this, there may come a time that further checks on an account for Affordability, Responsible Gambling or to assist us to verify your source of funds will need to be carried out to ensure we are upholding those standards.

In order to minimise any disruption, should you receive a request for such documentation please engage with the process as quickly as you can. If you experience any issues, please raise with your account manager immediately who will be able to assist you.

Football Postponements Rule Change

This month, we have made a tweak to our rules surrounding the postponement of football matches:

- If a match is postponed, all undetermined bets will be voided as long as the match does not start before 23:59 local time (or if Betfair believes that a match will not have started by such time) on its scheduled date.
- Fixtures that are rearranged before the scheduled kick off date will not be regarded as postponements and all bets will stand, as long as the rescheduled date is within 72 hours of the original kick off time.
- If a match starts but is later abandoned, all undetermined bets will be voided as long as the match is not played to a finish before midnight local time on its scheduled date.

Australian Greyhounds

On Saturday 10th April Betfair Australia are offering a 0% commission promotion on Greyhounds at NSW Wentworth Park meeting. Look out for extra liquidity in the markets at this time!
